Fans Seemingly Forgetful of Zephyr's Gentle Suggestion of an Approaching Winter—Line Up at the Ticket Window as Early as 9 O'clock This Morning.

Oct. 10.—Weather for the second game of the baseball championship between the Chicago teams of the National and the American League more comfortable today than yesterday, but they were somewhat cheerful. The clouds of yesterday gave way to bright sun shine at the temperature was lower and wind from the north blew into the grand stand at the stadium park where the game was played. The mercury this morning stood at 32 degrees, but rose during the day. By 9 o'clock the people were commencing to arrive at the gates of the park and it was announced that no tickets would be sold for two hours. Today's victory for the American team caused a decided lull in the betting, and even money offered on the result of the game.

HEIR TO THRONE GOES INTO TRADE.

By Associated Press.
Vienna, Oct. 10.—Archduke Franz Ferdinand, heir to the throne of Austria-Hungary, seems to have gone into the picture postcard business. Stationers and other tradesmen have received circulars from the estate office of the archduke at his country seat, Konopischt, in Bohemia, offering to supply picture postcards of the archduke and his family at 3 hellers (three-fifths of a cent) apiece, and adding that these cards cannot be bought anywhere else.

These circulars are sent out post free and are also registered free, so that apart from the unfairness of the archduke's estate office engaging in such a business, the postcard manufacturers are also angry at the post-office privileges.

To have sent such circulars by registered post would have cost ordinary business houses 25 hellers (nearly 6 cents) apiece.

CAUSED A BIG STIR

Bluffton Flooded With Crisp New Gold Certificate Twenties.

STANDARD OIL MONEY

Was Looked Upon With Suspicion But Found Good as Gold.

By Associated Press.
Bluffton, Ind., Oct. 8.—The appearance of large numbers of brand new twenty dollar gold certificates caused considerable stir here yesterday, for about half of those who examined the bills pronounced them counterfeit.

The bills proved to be perfectly good, however, and were of a new issue, the paper of which does not contain the small pieces of silk thread by which most people identify paper money as being good.

The bills were dumped here in abundance by the paymaster of the pipe line crew of the Indiana Pipe line company, a branch of the Standard, which is laying a new twelve inch line from the oil field to large tanks and a big line at Preble, Adams county. Saturday was pay day and the 150 employees each received from $50 to $100 in the new bills and several hundred of them were put in circulation. People were so suspicious of them at first that the workmen had difficulty in getting them changed, but stores took them freely today.

MISS DUDLEY

Gives Testimony Which is Damaging

To the New Jersey Physician Who Is Charged With Murder.

SUFFERINGS OF WIFE Graphically Described to the Jury by the Attending Nurse.

Accused is Expected to Take the Stand In His Own Defense.

By Associated Press.
Toms River, N. J., Oct. 10.—Miss Ira Dudley, whose testimony at the trial of Frank Brouwer late yesterday afternoon created a deep impression, will resume the stand today. Her testimony is deemed highly important by the prosecution and will be dwelt on at length. Miss Dudley's description of the sufferings of Mrs. Brouwer after partaking of a dose of medicine prepared by Dr. Brouwer, was sensational. Following her narrative of the effect of Dr. Brouwer's stimulants the witness gave a dramatic portrayal of Mrs. Brouwer's agony directly after such medicines were given to her.

Witness also testified as to the manner in which Mrs. Brouwer improved when her husband's preparations were ignored and those of the nurse used instead.

Dr. Brouwer never took his eyes off Miss Dudley from the time she went to the witness chair until she left it. His tall, heavy figure at times twitched nervously but he never lost the remarkable self-control he has displayed since his arrest.

It is expected that he will take the stand in his own defense.

LEGAL BATTLE

Between Standard Oil and Accusers

Progressing Slowly But Surely in the Hancock County Court.

ANCIENT TESTIMONY

Of John D. Rockefeller Submitted for Consideration of the Jury.

Attorney General Wade Ellis for the First Time Active in Case.

By Associated Press.
Findlay, O., Oct. 10.—It is the intention of the prosecution in the trial here of the Standard Oil company of Ohio for conspiracy against trade to occupy the entire time today in the submission of documentary evidence. This evidence consists of the pleadings and testimony in the two suits against the Standard Oil trust before the supreme court of the state in 1892 and 1897, a part of which was read to the jury yesterday.

Attorney V. P. Kline, conducting the case for the Standard, maintains that there is no competency in rehearsing this "ancient history," but Prosecutor David and his assistant, Mr. Phelps, insist it is necessary that the jury may get the proper perspective of the case.

The prosecution does not expect to put any witnesses on the stand before tomorrow.

R. L. Bates and John O'Brien, of Lima, both connected with the Buckeye Pipe Line company, were subpoenaed by the prosecution today in addition to their list of witnesses. As yet the defense has presented no list of witnesses.

Before the jury was brought into court on its convening at 9 o'clock today, attorneys for the prosecution and defense held a preliminary argument touching the competency of admitting testimony given by Mr. John D. Rockefeller, in previous trials.

Mr. Phelps maintained that this evidence by Mr. Rockefeller was highly material and in fact the very essence of the case on trial.

In objection, Mr. Kline said he would not concede even the authenticity of the statements. Mr. Phelps retorted that Mr. Rockefeller was then as now, president of the defendant company, and what he then said the trust had done and it can be proven he said it, is competent evidence.

"Mr. Rockefeller has not been shown to be, and in fact is not president of this defendant company," asserted Attorney Troup, for the defense. "The statements he then made were years before this cause of action. The things charged in this suit are things done in Hancock county since 1903. How can such statements be competent evidence?"

In reply Mr. Phelps declared that in the economy of the defendant company there was no way it could be faced.

"A corporation has no face except a false face. It is a mantle that covers the individuals in it, so that the head of the company, its president, when he speaks, that is the language of the corporation itself."

Reiterating that the evidence was not authenticated in a proper way to be accepted as evidence, Mr. Kline followed with the second objection that the president of a corporation could by his utterances bind the corporation. If the proposed procedure prevailed he said the deposition of any officer of any corporation might be taken, certified to before the clerk of any court and then taken into jurisdiction and admitted as evidence in a criminal proceeding.

Judge Banker interrupted to remark that the evidence was only offered to show the manner of doing business at that time, which of course would not convict within the time of the present charge, but simply to show that such a trust was formed.

"It is no excuse that it will do no harm," replied Mr. Kline.

"Would not the admission of the president of the corporation be conclusive as to the manner of its doing business?" queried Judge Banker.

Mr. Kline—"No, sir, not at all."

Judge Banker further stated that the evidence was not offered to show either the guilt or innocence of the defendant.

Mr. Toils, for the defense, replied to this that if it was not for that purpose it was surely incompetent evidence. Mr. Toils maintained that the state by law was absolutely barred from taking deposition in a criminal case, hence it was a travesty to endeavor to admit as evidence a deposition taken in another case.

Attorney General Ellis said he could not do his duty to the state if he did not give his judgment in the case. "Clearly, in my opinion this evidence is admissible," he said. He further maintained that in giving the testimony in question Mr. Rockefeller was acting for the corporation and that if he could not and did not so act, there would be no way whatever of proving any acts of a corporation.

Testimony Competent.
Judge Banker admitted testimony as competent. His ruling came at the conclusion of an argument of an hour and a half.

"If the answers of Mr. Rockefeller," he said, "tended to prove any act within the three years covered by this suit, the objection might be valid, but it is simply desired to show the acts of the corporation prior to that time."

An application of Mr. Kline to "take a smoke," resulted in a brief recess of the court at 10:30.

After a recess of about two hours the court convened at 1:30 o'clock and the protection continued reading the Rockefeller evidence. When this testimony had been read, Kline for the defense moved to strike it all from the records but was overruled by the court.

BRIDGE TRUST HAS HAD ENOUGH.
By Associated Press.
Bellefontaine, O., Oct. 10.—The bridge trust is a thing of the past in Ohio. Attorney General Ellis today reduced the trust, originally a combination of twelve companies, to a single company, and this one remaining defendant, the Mount Vernon Bridge company, expects to fight the ouster proceedings to the last ditch.

The quo warranto proceedings of the attorney general came on in the circuit court here today. Five of the defendant companies were ready to give up, acknowledge their wrong doing, and pay the penalty. These penalties are the surrender of their corporate rights and dissolution of their business by trustees appointed by the court to wind up the affairs of each company.

The companies ousted are the King Bridge company, of Cleveland, Champion of Wilmington, and the Bellefontaine, Massillon, and Canton companies. Prior to the surrender of these five, seven others have left the state or gone into bankruptcy since the suit was instituted.

GENERALS DEMAND
That Taft Secure Jobs for Them on Grounds of Obligation

FOR STOPPING WAR.

An Officer Named Del Castillo, Gives Men Significant Orders.

By Associated Press.
Havana, Oct. 10.—This being the 38th anniversary of the beginning of the Ten Years War for independence, the day was observed as a national holiday.

Several leaders of the revolution arrived here from all parts of the island to attend a meeting at the home of General Del Castillo. It is said the rebel generals intend to make urgent requests to secretary for official positions under the provisional government. It is stated that each of the generals has selected the position he desires and will make a demand for them on the ground that Mr. Taft is under obligations to them for their assistance in disarming the rebels. It is considered significant that the rebels who served under General Del Castillo have been instructed not to sell their horses and it is feared that Del Castillo has a wild idea of enforcing his demand for a position under the provisional government.

RECEIVER'S TRIBUTE

To the Employees of the Road Quite a Jolly
for the Boys.

General News Along the Lines and Gossip of the Rail.

J. P. Morgan has informed stockholders of the C. H. & D. that he intends holding that road as a unit system.

This means an early divorce from the Fere Marquette, as soon as it can be worked out in the courts. It may even mean alliances with the Michigan Central. The stockholders annual meeting was held in Cincinnati yesterday. The annual report of Judson Harmon, receiver, shows the many improvements which have been made in the track, the telegraph service, new shops, freight houses, new rails, new sidings, yard tracks and re-ballasting. The item of additions and improvements to the property made during the fiscal period cost $1,050,946.25. Receiver Harmon said that there was a serious loss of traffic during the coal miners' strike, which lasted from April 1 to June 25.

The report concludes with this tribute to the employees of the road from Receiver Harmon: "The various officers and employees have, almost without exception, shown zeal, fidelity and ability in the discharge of their duties. They have done this in the face of conditions which were naturally discouraging. Acknowledgment of their intelligent energy and loyalty is due from all who are interested in the property, but especially from the receiver."

The stockholders voted 76,578 shares the major part of which were voted by Messrs. Maxwell and Walsh. The following directors were elected for a term of three years: R. R. Rhodes, of Cleveland; Samuel Spencer, of New York; Henry F. Shoemaker, of New York; and W. L. Dechant, of Middletown. The stockholders present were E. N. Larade, W. C. Compton, William Felix, Philip Steinmetz, C. Boeckman, S. Voss, J. L. Cramer and J. E. Howard.

To be an Engineer.

Edward Tschner, of Lima, is visiting his parents and friends in this city. The many friends of Mr. Tschner will be pleased to learn that he is rapidly advancing in railroad work. Last week he passed an examination at Cleveland entitling him to accept a position as engineer. He is now employed as a fireman on the Lake Erie and Western railroad, but the probabilities are that he will be promoted to an engineership in the near future.—Wapak News.

More Power for L. S. E.

The Lake Shore Electric railway officials have planned large improvements for the local power house to take care of the increased business when the several new branches now building are in operation. More power will be needed when cars are running to Sandusky and Tiffin and Fostoria, and to meet the emergency the company has placed with the Westinghouse company an order for a new 3,000-horsepower steam turbine engine, the latest and most modern engine on the market today. By the terms of the contract the Westinghouse people must have this engine ready for operation in the early spring or summer.

The entire power system on the T. F. & N. division is being built. Two large new boilers are being installed at the Fremont power house and new transformers are being placed in every substation, the company also rebuilding all the substations. A modern new switchboard will be among the other improvements at the power house. When the new branch lines are in operation the Fremont power house will be an important station, furnishing as it will the greater part of the juice for the entire line.

IS THE CITY OF LIMA BANKRUPT?

This inquiry is suggested by a newspaper report of the proceedings of the last session of council, in which it was said that there was no money in treasury with which to pay expenses incident to the preparation, printing and filing of a brief in behalf of the city in a case now pending in the supreme court of Ohio against the city of Lima; or to pay for assistance in a case now pending in the court of common pleas against the case in which the city is attempting to defeat a recovery, and compel the contractors who built the new water works to pay back money received for work which the city claims was not done.

If this is true, and I know nothing as to the fact, except as they appear in print, of the proceedings of the city council, would it not be well for the city council to make some provision by which the city's rights may be protected. The council is by statute charged with making provision for the protection of the city's rights, and its power to make the necessary provision seems to be ample. It must provide the means by the necessary legislation, as it alone has the right to do so.

No officers of the city can, under the municipal code, make any contract, even for the printing of briefs in the case pending in the supreme court against the city, which will bind the city; and if he should "be shall be dismissed" from his office.

This being true, can the city council, in the discharge of its duty, under the oath of office each member has taken, refuse to make adequate provision for the protection of the rights of the city and its taxpayers.

The reputation of the members of the city council will not warrant the conclusion that the council, at the beginning of this half of the fiscal year appropriated all the money then in the city treasury and which would come into it during the next six months from tax collections and all other sources of revenue, without providing a contingency fund for emergencies, which, if reports published are correct, now create an emergency, in which case the law authorizes the council to make the necessary appropriation from this fund to meet the reported emergency.

A TAX-PAYER.

Result of Neglect.
In most cases consumption results from a neglected or improperly treated cold. Foley's Honey and Tar cures the most obstinate coughs and prevents serious results. It costs you no more than the unknown preparations and you should insist upon having the genuine in the yellow package. Wm. M. Melville, Old Postoffice corner.

NEGRO KILLED; SLAYER ESCAPES.

By Associated Press.
Little Rock, Ark., Oct. 10.—Alexander Champion, a negro was shot and killed in a saloon in Argentina yesterday evening. The murderer is unknown. Sheriff Kavanaugh went to the scene and contemplates placing the city of Argentina under martial law to-night.

Much excitement exists and it is believed the death of the negro is connected with race disturbances of the past several days. The governor may be asked to order out the state guards.

"DANDROCIDE"

is a scalp medicine, not merely a hair beautifier. It rids the scalp of that dangerous hair enemy, dandruff, and allows nature to serve its purpose unhampered. Your own specialist will endorse the properties in "Dandrocide."

The many hair tonics fool you into softening the hair, but shamefully neglect the great evil, dandruff.

You won't get rid of dandruff, until you use "Dandrocide." It is lasting in its benefits, and is best in its results when economically applied. One bottle will heal the scalp, and start a rejuvenating growth of hair.

Two hours of debate the horse-

It has been hoped by the directors

Good Riddance to Rheumatism
Health is Happiness! Pain is Misery!!

There is no pain more distressing than that of Rheumatism.
Rheumatism includes Neuralgia, Sciatica and Gout. The presence of any of these diseases means that the blood is full of Uric Acid.
Nature resents so much poison and in her efforts to clear it from the blood, forces some of it into the joints—on a bone—anywhere.
The dull steady ache and the sharp twinge in arm and leg are the beginning of the disease. Permanent disability and unendurable torture are the penalty of the sufferer who allows the disease to go unheeded. By dissolving and removing from the system the poisonous Uric Acid, Athlophoros quickly relieves the pain and reduces the swelling thus helping nature to restore the shattered system to its normal condition of health and activity.

REPUBLICAN-GAZETTE, SEPT. 12, 1906.

Reports that President Roosevelt wants to be United States Senator from New York to succeed Thomas C.
Platt are revived here. The president, on the authority of men intimate with him, not only desires to be senator from New York after he ends his present term, but frankly admits that ambition. Moreover, he considers the trend of things in New York politics at this time distinctly favorable to his ambition, and so do his friends. He is being looked to more and more as the leader of New York republican politics, and is being consulted by State Chairman Woodruff and other leaders almost daily.

Walter F. McDowell, secretary of the prohibition state committee and Dr. J. C. Jackson, editor of the American Issue, the organ of the anti-saloon league, are carrying on a warm controversy as a side attraction to the pending campaign over the best method of suppressing the saloon. Replying to a recent editorial criticism, Mr.
McDowell scores the league for getting the church members to vote with the high license parties and takes a full also out of church members who permit themselves to be led about in this way. Mr. McDowell says among other things:

"You intimate that I sneer at the church. Let me say as strongly as I can possibly state it: If the "federated" church of Ohio stands for the license of the saloon or any other evil, then I grant it the tribute of not only sneers but scorn and pity. We demand that the church get out of the whisky business."

Secretary of War Taft, according to news from Cleveland, has been secured to make one republican speech in that city toward the close of the campaign.

The secretary, so far as is known at this time, will deliver but the one speech in Ohio this campaign, but if it is of the character of the one delivered at Akron a year ago, one will be sufficient to satisfy State Chairman
Dick and other machine republicans.
Taft and Burton are two big republicans, who seem to be pretty much of the same mind. Both are opposed to a continuance of boss rule, which has dominated republican politics in Ohio for many years, and both also favor a revision of the high republican tariff schedules, so that with Burton presiding and Taft the speaker,
they are certain to find an audience
in full sympathy with their views.

When Secretary Taft was invited to come to Ohio last year, he told Chairman Dick that he would gladly come, but gave Dick fair warning that he would have to take cognizance of Cox and bossism as issues in the campaign, and he paid his respects to both in vigorous fashion in his Akron speech, which created a political sensation at the time of its delivery.
Governor Herrick attributed his defeat as much to Taft's speech as any one of the many contributing causes
to that inevitable result.

AN IDIOTIC SACRIFICE.

(Toledo, Blade.)

When one reflects that there were gathered around the Vanderbilt race course, on Saturday, over two hundred thousand crazy people, the record of only five killed and fewer than two-score wounded seems incredible. As is too often the case, it was the innocent bystander who suffered, while the cause of the crowd and the excitement escaped with their lives.

Mr. Vanderbilt, who furnished the rep for this grand man-killing sport,
didn't get even so much as a scratch.
The driver of one car and his machinist were knocked senseless in a spill, but otherwise the injuries was confined to the spectators.

Progress calls for human sacrifice.
Most large projects claim a contribution of blood. People are killed in the construction of bridges, factories and skyscrapers, in the building of machinery. But civilization finds compensation in the results achieved, in the benefits derived.

This Saturday race was not a demonstration in the interest of science or humanity. It didn't determine the best nor the strongest machine. Nearly every one of those cars was capable of traveling 50 or 60 miles an hour on a straight away track. But it was a contest to see which one of those idiotic drivers would take the longest chances and escape with his life.

Mr. Vanderbilt is quoted as having said that there would not be another race for the cup in this country, but it is a question that shouldn't rest with Mr. Vanderbilt. The people, through their law making bodies,
should see to it that there never can be another race like it. The Spanish bull fight is a civilized sport compared with it. One cannot read the details of the events without approving the opinion of the English physician who said recently that we were rapidly becoming a world of lunatics.

NEW YORK IN THE HOUSE.

Including the Yonkers district
Greater New York has nineteen representatives in congress. But three states have larger representation—Pennsylvania, 32; Illinois, 25, and Ohio 21. The great states of Texas and Missouri have each sixteen members and Massachusetts only fourteen.
The combined representation of this great state does not exceed that of the city of New York. Long Island is represented by seven members, and a portion of its territory is included with part of Manhattan Island in the fourteenth district. Twenty-three of the forty-five states have seven or fewer representatives in congress.

Why does not the city of New York,
or Long Island, have greater influence in the house of representatives? The average of its representatives in ability and capacity measures up to the average of members from the rest of the country. That there are reasons of the insignificant part New York plays in the affairs of the federal government is apparent. A few pertinent facts are instructive and clarifying. Joseph G. Cannon, the present speaker of the house, has served twenty-two years; Srenno E. Payne, the chairman of ways and means,

twenty-two; James S. Sherman, chairman of Indian affairs, eighteen; William P. Hepburn, chairman of interstate commerce, twenty-two;
James W. Wadsworth, chairman of agriculture, twenty; J. A. T. Hull, chairman of military affairs, sixteen;
John Dalzell, one of the wheel horses
of the house, twenty; Foss, chairman of naval affairs, and Overstreet, of postoffices and post roads, twelve years each. On the democratic side DeArmond has sixteen years to his credit, John Sharp Williams, fourteen, and Livingston, sixteen. This list could be extended.

Until the practice of other communities is adopted and representatives are retained a number of years in service New York will continue to be more insignificant in national affairs than some of the sparsely settled
western states.—Brooklyn Eagle.

THE END OF THE FARM.

James J. Hill is a farsighted man.
It was by this quality, comparatively rare among Americans whose tendency is always to look for quick returns, that he built up his great railway system. It is said in the northwest that no man out that way ever thinks of anything for the advancement of the country but that James J. Hill has thought of it years before. When he takes to prophesying then it is at least worth while to give some consideration to his words. And during the past few days he has twice taken opportunity to say that at our present rate of exploitation we shall in fifty years be dangerously near the limit of our resources in timber, coal and minerals. Then, he adds, it will be necessary for us to turn our attention to farming.

Of course Mr. Hill's refoad depends upon the farms in its territory for its hope of prosperity. At present it is hauling vast amounts of timber from the Pacific states to the eastern market and manufactured goods from the east to the west for sale there and for shipment to the orient. But it can already be estimated when the forest of Washington and Oregon will be destroyed, and last year's trade reports show that the orient has already begun to make for itself the articles that heretofore it has bought of us to the value of millions of dollars annually.

To Mr. Hill, consequently, the farm question is a vital one and according to his habit he has studied it thoroughly. The result of his study is a warning that in farming also we are squan-dering our resources by reckless exploitation. The American farmer treats his land as the American business man too often treats his business, with an eye single to the profits of the present year, with no thought of the more distant future. With the business man this means in the long run expensive management, with the farmer it means steady depreciation of the land upon which the nation in the future, as in the present, must depend for the basis of its prosperity.

A German beet sugar man who visited Michigan last week said that he noted an improvement in methods now employed here over those employed several years ago, but he expressed his surprise at our raising beets on the same field season after season.
In his country the farmer varies his crop, knowing that while other produce may not bring as much, yet the continued fertility of the soil will make him in the end a gainer.

That we will awaken to the wisdom of this policy is certain. The only question is whether it will be before or after the small farmer, having made his once fertile acres sterile, is forced to sell them to great corporations which will employ experts to do their farming in a scientific manner.—Grand Rapids Press.

CHECK FORGER

Captured by Patrolman Billstein

When He Returned to Keller's Saloon to Have Bad Check Cashed.

ON STOLEN BLANKS.

A Painter From Dayton Forged the Name of Grocer O'Neill.

Pleaded Guilty This Morning and Was Indicted by Grand Jury.

The grind in mayor's court was enlivened this morning by the arraignment of an alleged forger whom the police claim to have caught red handed and who sustained this contention by entering a plea of guilty to the felony which was charged against him.

The prisoner is Frank Fairchild, a painter, who claims to hail from Dayton. He first came into notice yesterday afternoon when he visited the Home restaurant and borrowed pen and ink from Miss Blank, an employee at the restaurant, in whose presence he wrote out two checks for small amounts, in his own favor, and signed the name of John O'Neill, a well known side grocer, to them. When next heard from he had presented one of the forged checks, drawn up for the sum of $6.10, at Peter Keller's saloon to have it cashed. Mr. Keller did not like the appearance of the check and informed the man that he would keep it a short time and that he could call later for his money.

After the man had left Mr. Keller visited Mr. O'Neill and learned from him that he had issued no check to any person of the name of Fairchild and the case was then reported to the police. It was not supposed, however, that the man would ever return to claim the check and Mr. Keller was surprised last night when the fellow again appeared at his place and inquired if the proprietor was ready to cash his check. Mr. Keller found time to notify the police and Patrolman Billstein was on the scene within two minutes and had the man in custody. It was afterwards learned that Fairchild had also visited the C. H. & D. restaurant and Eli Brentlinger's place near the depots but had not succeeded in having any of his forged checks cashed in either place. The blank checks had been stolen from a desk in the Bank of Lima and were all drawn on Bank of Lima blanks.

Upon entering a plea of guilty to the charge of forgery, Fairchild was bound over to the grand jury and sent to the county jail in default of bond in the sum of three hundred dollars.

One That Was Cashed.
During the day, today, the police received a report from Frank Merkle, proprietor of a saloon on north Main street, to the effect that the stranger had had a check for $8.60 cashed at his place. It is possible that other checks of the same nature will be heard from within a day or two.

ORPHIUM THEATRE.

Business still continues to be big at this popular play house, and well it deserves it, for you can always get plenty of amusement there. You see the same show at the Orphium for 10c and 20c, that you would pay 75c and $1.00 to see in Chicago or New York. There is a team of equilibrists, hand and head balancers billed as St. Arnino and Croumer, who are the cleverest in physical culture ever seen in Lima. This act alone is worth more than the price of admission.

Seconds of the Celebrated St. Marys Fine all Wool Blankets at a Saving of About One-Half.

Many months ago, we contracted with the St. Mary's Woolen Mills, for their entire stock of what is commercially known as seconds, representing all grades of fine wool blankets that show some slight imperfection, such as is caused by the missing of a thread in weaving or a slight soil caused by a spot of oil from the looms. Also included are many pairs that are perfect as to weave, but show a slight difference in the coloring. Some have different colored borders. None are damaged to the extent that they are undesirable. The entire lot was secured at a price concession that enables us to place them on sale feeling absolutely certain that this offering represents the best blanket bargain opportunity ever offered in this city. Such values would be utterly impossible under ordinary circumstances.

The Four Following Values Represent Blankets That are Slightly Imperfect in Weave.

Platt E. Mott because, as he alleges, the company has failed to carry out the provisions of the lease and contract. The concern leased 135 acres in section 34, Delaware township, owned by Mr. and Mrs. Mott. In January, 1905, three wells had been finished, but it is alleged that they never were pumped and produced no oil. No wells have been drilled since that time, although the owners of the land have asked that the ground be developed, as oil has been found nearby. It is alleged that the company refuses to pump the wells and abandoned the lease in June, 1905. As the Flower City Oil company has failed to comply with the conditions, as alleged, the plaintiffs ask that the title to the property be quieted. They ask that the company be enjoined from re-entering the lands, as it is averred the company has threatened to do.

A Certain Cure for Croup—Used for Ten Years Without a Failure.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the past ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by all druggists.

MIDDLE LIFE

A Time When Women Are Susceptible to Many Dread Diseases—Intelligent Women Prepare for It. Two Relate their Experiences.

The "change of life" is the most critical period of a woman's existence, and the anxiety felt by women as it draws near is not without reason.

Every woman who neglects the care of her health at this time invites disease and pain. When her system is in a deranged condition, or she is predisposed to epilepsy, or congestion of any organ, the tendency is at this period likely to become active—and with a host of nervous irritations, making life a burden. At this time, also, cancers and tumors are more liable to form and begin their destructive work.

Such warning symptoms as sense of suffocation, hot flashes, headaches, backaches, dizziness, trembling, timidity, tinnitus of the ears, palpitation of the heart, sparks before the eyes, irregularities, constipation, variable appetite, weakness, inquietude, and dizziness, are promptly heeded by intelligent women who are approaching the period in life when woman's great change may be expected.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was prepared to meet the needs of woman's system at this trying period of her life. It invigorates and strengthens the female organism and builds up the weakened nervous system.

For special advice regarding this important period women are invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., and it will be furnished absolutely free of charge. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, an assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women.

Read what Lydia E. Pinkham's Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:— "I had been suffering with displacement of the organs for years and was passing through the change of life. My abdomen was badly swollen; my stomach was sore; I had dizzy spells, sick headaches, and was very nervous."

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds Where Others Fail.

Mrs. A. E. G. Hyland

"I wrote you for advice and commenced treatment with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound as you directed, and I am happy to say that all those distressing symptoms have disappeared. I have passed through the change of life, a well woman. I am recommending your medicine to all my friends."—Mrs. Annie E. G. Hyland, Chester-town, Md.

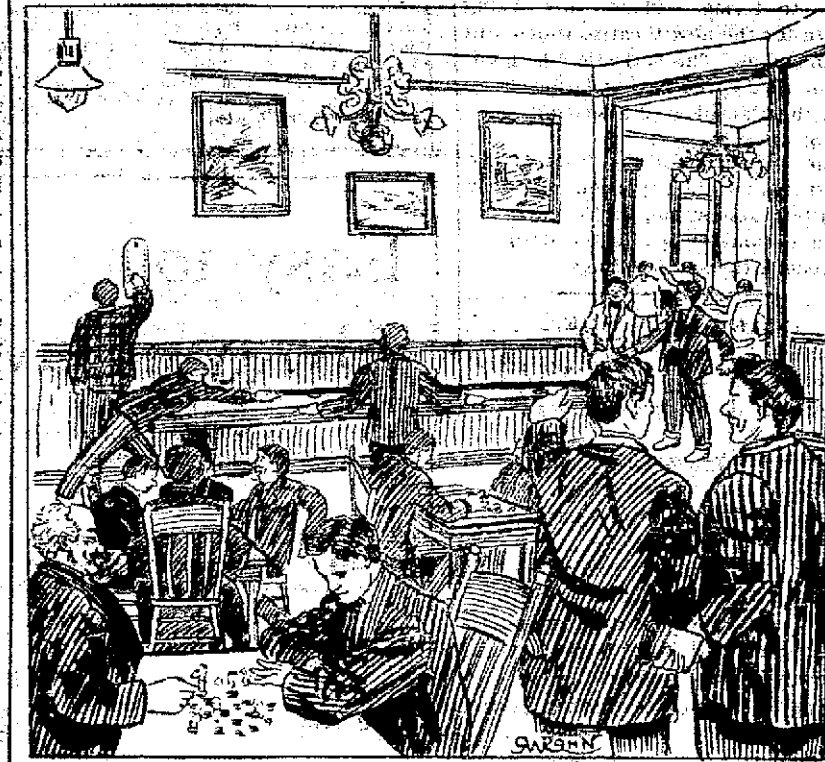

Another Woman's Case "During change of life words cannot express what I suffered. My physician said I had a cancerous condition of the female organs. One day I read some of the testimonials of women who had been cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I decided to try it and to write you for advice. Your medicine made me a well woman, and all my bad symptoms soon disappeared."

"I advise every woman at this period of life to take your medicine and write you for advice."—Mrs. Lizzie Hinkle, Salem, Ind. What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Hyland and Mrs. Hinkle it will do for other women at this time of life.

It has conquered pain, restored health, and prolonged life in cases that utterly baffled physicians.

PLUMBING FIRMS ARE INDICTED FOR CONSPIRACY AGAINST TRADE

Eleven Individuals and One Corporation Held to Answer.

Leading Business Men of the City of Lima for a Half Century Included in the List of Alleged Trust Promoters Named by Prosecutor.

THE GRAND JURY'S SENSATIONAL REPORT

Indictments Are Drawn Similar to those Framed Against the Bridge Trust in Which Prosecutions Have Been Successful All Over the State of Ohio.

HELD TO ANSWER.
LIMA PLUMBING & HEATING COMPANY
(A corporation)
CHARLES M. CANTENY.
VICTOR GONNELLA.
HENRY J. ROACH.
ELMER E. TUTTLE.
DOLPHUS L. BOWER.
THOMAS B. JOHNS.
HUGH L. HUNTER.
CHARLES M. JOHNS.
ORLEY B. JOHNS.
CHARLES F. ASHTON.

The grand jury of Allen county made its return to the court of common pleas at noon today.

The rumors from the upper room of the court house have told an advance story of what was to be expected and in this instance rumors have become facts.

These men are well known in commercial circles, and their indictment will come as a general surprise to the public. They are held to answer in the common pleas courts to the charge of "conspiracy against trade," and an alleged "trust agreement" as to prices will figure in the recital of the cases.

What must now be known as "The Plumbers' Trust" has, according to the indictments returned the following personell, the gentlemen named being held on like indictments: The Lima Plumbing & Heating company, a corporation, Charles C. Cowles, Charles M. Canteny, Victor Gonnella, Henry J. Roach, Elmer E. Tuttle, Dolphus L. Bower, Hugh L. Hunter, Thomas B. Johns, Charles M. Johns, Orley B. Johns, and Charles F. Ashton.

History of the Prosecution.
The history of the prosecution against this alleged Plumbers Trust goes hand in hand with the investigation at last spring's session of the grand jury. At that time attention was called by several parties to existing prices of plumbers and lumber dealers, and the prosecutor was urged to take on an investigation.

Mr. Welty was very busy in the Bridge Trust matters and passed local concerns until he could untangle himself from the bridge companies. He took up the prosecution at this time and is said to have found evidence of such a character that indictments under the law was compulsory.

WORK OF THE JURY

The Formal Report as Made to the Court.

In its formal report to the court today the grand jury recites that it has been in session 13 days, has called 338 witnesses; considered 55 cases and returned true bills to the number of 23.

The jury makes a strong recommendation to the county commissioners in stating "We find no separate department in the county jail for juvenile prisoners as required by law," and duly make recommendation that this be added.

THE PETTY LIST

Crimes Against the State as Found by the Jury.

Fourteen individuals fell prisoners in the work of the grand jury in the investigation of felonies and misdemeanors other than that of trust busting.

Among the most prominent cases are those told in indictments against the Shirlitts and Harley Point growing out of the theft of the driving horse of Recorder Fred Zelts. The Shirlitts are held for receiving property known to have been stolen and Point is held for horse stealing.

Another interesting indictment is the return as the result of the shooting affair at the old Haller homestead on the Elida road when Michael Troxel, fell a victim to a bullet fired from the revolver held by his boarder, Charles Wheaton. Wheaton is indicted for shooting with intent to kill, his victim having hovered between life and death at the city hospital for a number of days.

Quick justice is also recounted in the indictment of Frank Fairchild, who is alleged to have last night passed a forged check bearing the signature of Groceriesman John O'Neill, and which was cashed by Peter Keller Fairchild, is from Dayton, was apprehended by Detective Bultstein last night, arraigned in police court this morning, and indicted before the noon hour.

The full list of indictments as made public today is as follows:
Frank Fairchild, forgery.
David Bates, bigamy.
Charles Gorman, larceny and receiving stolen goods.
Harley Point, horse stealing.
Edward Shirlitt, buying property known to have been stolen.
Charles Shirlitt, buying property known to have been stolen.
William Carrig, larceny.
Blaine Lyle, larceny and burglary.
George Maple, abandonment of minor child.
Charles Wheaton, shooting with intent to kill.
Curtis Hall, larceny.
James Phillips, larceny.
B. L. Roebuck, burglary and larceny.

ALLEGED LUMBER TRUST

Held To Be in the Clutches of Others More Powerful.

The investigation of the alleged Lumber trust resulted in no indictments being returned at this sitting of the grand jury, and from what was gleaned, it is not likely that any local prosecution could reach the alleged evils of high prices believed as prevalent in this city.

It is said the investigation as to the lumber dealers proved conclusively that high prices were not due to any agreement of or between local dealers, but that prices were set by a National Lumber Trust, over which local dealers have no control. Prosecutor Benj. F. Welty piled so deeply into this question as to thoroughly satisfy himself, and secure sufficient evidence, it is said, to prosecute the National Trust before the Interstate commerce commission, in a similar action at last spring's session of the grand jury.

TWELVE HOURS

Ahead of the Service of Any Other Newspaper.

Natural modesty forbids us to make much mention of the good qualities and progressiveness of the Times-Democrat, but the publication of the big base ball game, by innings, between the Nationals and Americans in Chicago, yesterday was just a little bit the best piece of quick newspaper work this community has ever seen.

The great game ended in Chicago at 1:20 o'clock and at 4:30 o'clock the full report was before readers of the Times-Democrat. Readers of a good, live newspaper deserve good service and they get it in the Times-Democrat.

The report was received over our Associated Press lease wire and gave the Lima base ball fans the news from the national game twelve hours earlier than given by any other Lima newspaper.

Don as that brought against Standard Oil.

CASES DISMISSED

No Criminal Returns Made Against C. H. & D. Men.

The grand jury made no returns of indictments against men arrested in connection with alleged "padded rolls" at the C. H. & D. shops in the car department. All these cases were dismissed, and in fact the report given the press today as published above, is practically complete of the jury's work a few minor indictments being withheld, charging misdemeanors against persons not yet taken into custody.

OPENING AT FINDLAY

Expected to be Made a Big Affair With the Longworths.

Princess Alice is being made the big drawing card for the opening of the republican campaign in Findlay next Friday, and the president's daughter promises to be as eagerly looked forward to as she was at the Fall Festival, when the attendance dropped away immediately after her departure. Princess Alice is supposed to be accompanied by her less distinguished husband, Congressman Longworth who will aid Congressman Ralph D. Cole towards re-election if such is possible in the Eighth district.

The meeting will also open the campaign in Northwestern Ohio and the speakers will include Governor Harris and Congressman Longworth, the president's son-in-law, who will undoubtedly be accompanied by Mrs. Longworth, the Longworths being intimate friends of Congressman Ralph Cole, of Findlay, who is a candidate to succeed himself in congress. Shortly after his nomination, he asked Congressman Longworth to make a speech in his district, and the meeting Friday is to fulfill this promise.

The meeting will be held in the Marvin Theatre in the evening. Arrangements are being made for the accommodation of an immense crowd by the Western Ohio having hourly cars to and from Findlay.

The Western Ohio is the only route by which you can go to Findlay and get back home that night, and arrangements are being made to handle the crowd, no matter how large.
